Headline:
Fine, with sunny spells Thursday. Cold overnight with frost.

Today:
Cold, largely sunny start, before some fair weather cloud develops through the morning. Most parts staying dry, with warm sunny spells, although the odd afternoon shower cannot be ruled out. Feeling cooler towards the coast, with an onshore breeze. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry, with any patchy cloud fading away. Feeling cold beneath the clearing skies, with a widespread frost. The odd mist or fog patch also possible in prone spots by dawn. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Friday:
Another cold and sunny start. Some fair weather cloud then likely to develop, however it will likely stay dry, with warm sunny spells. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry with sunny spells and variable cloud through the weekend and Monday. Remaining cold overnight, with frost and fog patches. Daytime temperatures likely near normal for April.
